SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT
FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

NOW COME the Plaintiffs, CHRISTINE RADOGNO, in her official capacity as Minority Leader of the Illinois Senate, THOMAS CROSS, in his official capacity as Minority Leader of the Illinois House of Representatives, ADAM BROWN, in his official capacity as state representative from the 101st Representative District and individually as a registered voter, VERONICA VERA, ANGEL GARCIA, and EDWIN TOLENTINO and by and through the undersigned attorneys, complaining of the Defendants state and allege as follows:

1. This is a civil rights suit brought to protect the most sacred right in a democratic society -- the right to vote. It seeks to invalidate the redistricting plan for election of members to the Illinois General Assembly (the "General Assembly"), approved by the General Assembly on May 27, 2011 and signed into law by the Governor on June 3, 2011, which sets forth the districts to be used to elect members of the General Assembly (the "Redistricting Plan"). The Redistricting Plan and the process by which it was created violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the federal Voting Rights Act and the Constitution of the State of Illinois. The gross deprivation of these constitutional and statutory rights caused by the Redistricting Plan requires this Court to invalidate the Redistricting Plan, enjoin future elections under the Redistricting Plan and institute a new redistricting plan setting forth the districts used to elect members of the General Assembly consistent with all applicable constitutional and statutory requirements or order other appropriate corrective action.

VENUE AND JURISDICTION

19. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343 because Plaintiffs seek relief pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 based on violations of the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and 42 U.S.C. § 1973, the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

20. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because relevant and substantial acts occurred and will continue to occur within the Northern District of Illinois.

THREE-JUDGE COURT

21. Convening of a district court of three (3) judges is required in this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2284(a) because the action challenges the constitutionality of the statewide apportionment of districts for the election of members of the Illinois Senate and Illinois House of Representatives.

The Redistricting Process

22. In 2010, the United States Census Bureau conducted its federal decennial census.

23. The Illinois Constitution provides that "in the year following each Federal decennial census year, the General Assembly by law shall redistrict the Legislative and the Representative Districts." IL CONST., Art. IV, Sec. 3(b).

24. Throughout the 2011 redistricting process, the General Assembly acted under the color of state law.

25. During the entire redistricting process, Democrats held a majority of the seats in the Illinois Senate and Illinois House of Representatives, and the Illinois Governor was a Democrat.

26. Democrats exercised exclusive majority control over the entire process of enacting the Redistricting Plan at the legislative and executive branch levels of Illinois state government.

27. It is the duty of the State of Illinois ("State") to enact a redistricting plan so that the political process is equally open to meaningful participation by Latino voters in Illinois.

28. It is the State's duty to enact a redistricting plan such that Latinos in Illinois have the same opportunity as do other members of the electorate to participate in the political process and to elect representatives of their choice.

29. It is the Defendant's duty to enforce a redistricting plan that complies with Article 2, Section 3(a) of the Illinois Constitution.

30. It is the Defendant's duty to enforce a redistricting plan that does not intentionally or purposefully discriminate against voters because of their political beliefs or party affiliations in violation of Article 2, Section 3(a) of the Illinois Constitution.

31. It is the Defendants' duty to enforce a redistricting plan that does not invidiously or arbitrarily discriminate against voters because of their political beliefs or party affiliations in violation of Article 2, Section 3(a) of the Illinois Constitution.

32. It is the State's duty to enact and follow a redistricting plan that does not unfairly burden or penalize voters because of their political views.

The "Public Hearings"

33. During the 97th General Assembly, the Illinois Senate formed the Senate Redistricting Committee ("SRC") which was composed of 17 state senators: 11 from the Democratic majority and six from the Republican minority.

34. During the 97th General Assembly, the Illinois House of Representatives formed the House Redistricting Committee ("HRC") which was composed of 11 state representatives: six from the Democratic majority and five from the Republican minority.

35. In March, April and May, 2011, the SRC and HRC held public hearings throughout Illinois (the "Public Hearings").

36. The committees held the public hearings purportedly to seek public input into the redistricting process.

37. A consistent and repeated request from the public, including registered Republican voters, at the Public Hearings was that the General Assembly make available to the public the proposed redistricting plan to be voted on by the General Assembly in sufficient time before the vote on the map to allow the public to review, analyze and comment upon the proposed redistricting plan.

38. At the aforementioned Public Hearings before the SRC and HRC, virtually every member of the public, including registered Republican voters, who testified requested that the committee provide an explanation for the rationale behind each district of any proposed plan brought before the committee for a vote so that the public, including registered Republican voters, would have time for review, analysis and comment prior to a committee vote.

39. On information and belief, from May 1, 2011 to May 27, 2011, the Senate Democratic Caucus prevented members of the public, from using the public access computer and software located in Chicago offered to members of the public as a means to analyze and develop redistricting plans to be submitted for consideration.

Unveiling of the Proposed Redistricting Plans

40. On May 18, 2011 during the evening hours, the SRC first disclosed, as Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Bill 1175, a picture of a proposed redistricting plan to the public-at-large for review and comment.

41. In order to view a picture of Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Bill 1175, members of the public, including registered Republican voters, had a brief period of time to access the Internet and download computer applications such as Google Earth! and Adobe Acrobat.

42. On information and belief, the SRC never made paper or electronic copies of Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Bill 1175 available to the public, including registered Republican voters, for comment or analysis.

43. On May 18, 2011, the SRC announced that it would accept public testimony on Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Bill 1175 at a hearing scheduled for noon on Saturday, May 21, 2011 in Chicago, Illinois.

44. On May 19, 2011 during the evening hours, the HRC disclosed a picture of a proposed redistricting plan for representative districts, filed as House Amendment #1 to House Bill 3760.

45. In order to view a picture of House Amendment #1 to House Bill 3760, members of the public, including registered Republican voters, had to access the Internet and download computer applications such as Google Earth! and Adobe Acrobat.

46. On information and belief, the HRC did not make the supporting demographic data available to the general public, including registered Republican voters, unless a request was submitted in writing.

47. On May 20, 2011, the HRC announced that it would accept public testimony on House Amendment #1 to House Bill 3760 at a hearing scheduled for 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, May 22, 2011 in Chicago.

48. On May 21, 2011, the SRC accepted public testimony on Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Bill 1175.

49. Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Bill 1175 and House Amendment #1 to House Bill 3760 both stated: "For purposes of legislative intent, the General Assembly adopts and incorporates herein, as if fully set forth, the provisions of House Resolution 385 of the Ninety-Seventh General Assembly and Senate Resolution 249 of the Ninety-Seventh General Assembly."

50. Neither House Resolution 385 nor Senate Resolution 249 was filed or made available to the public, including registered Republican voters, or the Republican members of the SRC or HRC for review prior to the hearings scheduled for the weekend of May 21-22, 2011.

"Public Hearings" During the Weekend of May 21-22, 2011

51. At the SRC hearing on May 21, 2011, a majority of the members of the public, including registered Republican voters, who testified requested more time to review, analyze and comment on Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Bill 1175.

52. At the HRC hearing on May 22, 2011, a majority of the members of the public, including registered Republican voters, requested more time to review, analyze and comment on House Amendment #1 to House Bill 3760.

53. At the HRC hearing on May 22, 2011, members of the public, including registered Republican voters, testified that they were unaware that the demographic data supporting House Amendment #1 to House Bill 3760 could be made available if one made a request in writing.

54. On information and belief, the Democratic members of the Rules Committee of the Illinois House of Representatives ("Rules Committee") convened at approximately noon on May 22, 2011 and approved House Amendment #1 to House Bill 3760 for consideration before the HRC at the May 22, 2011 hearing which was scheduled to begin at 2:00 p.m.

55. The Democratic members of the Rules Committee did not provide the Republican members of the Rules Committee with notice of the May 22, 2011 Rules Committee hearing.

56. The Democratic members of the HRC and their support staff did not notify the Republican members of the HRC and their support staff or the general public that House Amendment #1 to House Bill 3760 would be considered at the May 22, 2011 hearing or that the sponsor of the measure would be available for questioning.

57. On Sunday, May 22, 2011, the Illinois Senate passed Senate Bill 1177 by a vote of 30-14.

58. Senate Bill 1177 did not contain substantive changes to the Illinois Compiled Statutes.

59. On Monday, May 23, 2011, the Democratic majority of the Illinois House of Representatives voted to suspend the posting requirements for Senate Bill 1177.

"Public Hearing" on House and Senate Amendments

60. On Tuesday, May 24, 2011, the HRC and SRC convened a contemporaneous hearing to consider Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Bill 1175 and House Amendment #1 to House Bill 3760.

61. At the contemporaneous hearing on May 24, 2011, the Democratic majority called Dr. Allan Lichtman as a witness on Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Bill 1175 and House Amendment #1 to House Bill 3760.

62. At the contemporaneous hearing on May 24, 2011, Dr. Lichtman testified that the Democratic Caucuses in the Illinois House of Representatives and Illinois Senate had retained him to advise Democratic attorneys and staffers about providing African-Americans and Latino residents in Illinois with opportunities to elect candidates of their choice in any redistricting plan.

63. At the contemporaneous hearing on May 24, 2011, Dr. Lichtman provided testimony regarding his opinion on Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Bill 1175 and House Amendment #1 to House Bill 3760.

64. Neither the Republican members of the HRC and SRC and their support staff nor the general public were provided with advance notice of Dr. Lichtman's testimony or a copy of his opinions in order to prepare for questioning.

65. The Democratic Caucuses did not present an expert witness to opine on whether or not Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Bill 1175 or House Amendment #1 to House Bill 3760 met the requirement of the Illinois Constitution of 1970 that districts be "compact."

The Fair Map

66. On May 25, 2011, the Republican Caucuses of the Illinois Senate and the Illinois House of Representatives unveiled a redistricting plan for the Representative and Legislative Districts called the Fair Map.

67. The Republican Caucuses made the Fair Map available to the public on a public website in an interactive format that provided demographic data for each of the districts proposed.

68. The Republican Caucuses also made the Fair Map and demographic data available on their websites in a downloadable format.

73. On information and belief, the HRC did not make the supporting demographic data available to the general public, including registered Republican voters, unless a request was submitted in writing.

74. House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177 stated: "For purposes of legislative intent, the General Assembly adopts and incorporates herein, as if fully set forth, the provisions of House Resolution 385 of the Ninety-Seventh General Assembly and Senate Resolution 249 of the Ninety-Seventh General Assembly."

75. On May 26, 2011, approximately two hours before the scheduled session of the Illinois House of Representatives, the Democratic majority of the Rules Committee voted by a margin of 3-1 to send House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177 to the full Illinois House of Representatives for consideration.

76. House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177 never received a hearing before the HRC.

77. On May 27, 2011, approximately two hours before the scheduled session of the Illinois House of Representatives, State Representative Barbara Flynn Currie filed House Resolution 385.

78. Enactment of the Redistricting Plan

80. On May 27, 2011, State Representative Roger Eddy filed a motion to discharge the Fair Map from the Rules Committee for consideration.

82. The Fair Map never received consideration before the HRC, the Illinois House of Representatives, the SRC or the Illinois Senate.

83. On May 27, 2011, during the mid-morning hours, House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177 was called for a vote before the full Illinois House of Representatives.

84. During the Illinois House floor debate on House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177, State Representative Currie stated that Dr. Lichtman did not review the districts contained in the new amendment.

85. On May 27, 2011, during the mid-morning hours, the Democratic majority in a vote along party lines in the Illinois House of Representatives passed House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177 by a vote of 64-52.

86. After the passage of House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177, House Resolution 385 was called for a vote before the Illinois House of Representatives.

87. The Democratic majority in the Illinois House of Representatives passed House Resolution 385 by a vote of 64-52.

88. On May 27, 2011 at approximately 2:00 p.m., State Senator Kwame Raoul filed Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Resolution 249.

90. During the SRC debate on House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177, the sponsor, State Senator Kwame Raoul, stated that Dr. Lichtman had not reviewed House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177.

91. After the debate on House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177, the Democratic majority in the SRC voted to adopt Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Resolution 249 over the objection of the Republican members of the SRC.

92. On May 27, 2011 at approximately 5:30 p.m., the Democratic majority in the Illinois Senate voted along party lines to concur with House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177 by a margin of 35-22.

93. Shortly after passage of the House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177, the Democratic majority adopted Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Resolution 249 by a vote of 35-22.

94. On June 3, 2011, Governor Patrick J. Quinn signed House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177 into law as Public Act 97-0006.

95. Public Act 97-0006 became effective on June 3, 2011 (the "Redistricting Plan").

96. The process by which any redistricting plan is created under Article IV, Section 3 of the Illinois Constitution must provide the deciding body with sufficient information to determine if the redistricting plan meets constitutional requirements.

97. The Democratic Caucuses did not provide the public, including registered Republican voters, with a meaningful opportunity to analyze and comment on Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Bill 1175 and House Amendment #1 to House Bill 3760.

98. The Democratic Caucuses did not provide the public, including registered Republican voters, with sufficient supporting data and explanations which would enable the public to provide the General Assembly with meaningful public criticism of Senate Amendment #1 to Senate Bill 1175 and House Amendment #1 to House Bill 3760.

99. The Democratic Caucuses did not provide the public, including registered Republican voters, or the members of the Republican minority with any advance notice of the testimony of Dr. Allan Lichtman.

100. The Democratic Caucuses repeatedly suspended the procedural rules governing the Illinois House of Representatives and the Illinois Senate in an effort to prevent the public, including registered Republican voters, and the Republican minority from providing meaningful input regarding all proposed redistricting plans.

101. The Democratic Caucuses gave the public, including registered Republican voters, and the Republican minority less than 24 hours to analyze and comment on House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177.

102. The Democratic Caucuses filed Senate Resolution 249 and House Resolution 385 less than two hours prior to their consideration.

103. The Democratic Caucuses refused to debate Senate Resolution 249 and House Resolution 385, which purported to contain the legislative intent for each and every district, prior to voting on House Amendment #2 to Senate Bill 1177.

104. The Democratic Caucuses did not provide the public, including registered Republican voters, with a meaningful opportunity to analyze and comment on Senate Resolution 249 and House Resolution 385.

105. The Democratic Caucus in the Illinois House of Representatives prevented the Fair Map from ever receiving a public hearing or consideration for a vote.

106. The Democratic Caucuses never presented expert testimony on the Redistricting Plan regarding its adherence to the mandate of the Illinois Constitution of 1970 that all districts be “compact.”

107. The Democratic Caucuses never presented expert testimony on the Redistricting Plan regarding its adherence to the mandate of the Federal Voting Rights Act of 1965.

Characteristics of the Redistricting Plan

108. The General Assembly comprises senators elected from 59 Legislative Districts and representatives elected from 118 Representative Districts.

109. According to the 2010 census, the total population in Illinois is 12,830,632.

110. Pursuant to the 2010 census and the United States Constitution, each Legislative District shall contain 217,468 total people.

111. Pursuant to the 2010 census and the United States Constitution, each Representative District shall contain 108,734 total people.

112. The Redistricting Plan is less compact than the map of Legislative and Representative Districts for the General Assembly enacted in 2001.

113. The Fair Map achieves compactness scores significantly higher than the Redistricting Plan.

114. The Redistricting Plan splits more traditional redistricting boundaries, such as municipalities and townships in Illinois than the map of Legislative and Representative Districts for the General Assembly enacted in 2001.

115. The Redistricting Plan contains more splits of counties and municipalities in Illinois than does the Fair Map.

116. At the time of the 2010 Census, Latinos constituted 13.45% of the voting age population ("VAP") in the State of Illinois.

117. The Latino VAP in Representative District 23 is 46.27%.

118. Under the Redistricting Plan, Latinos of VAP constitute a majority in only 10 districts.

119. The Latino VAP in the areas near and around Representative Districts 1, 2, 21, 22, 23 and 24 (the "South Side Latino Districts") is sufficiently large and geographically compact such that each of the South Side Latino Districts could have Latino VAP in excess of 50%.

120. Latino voters in the South Side Latino Districts are politically cohesive.

121. White voters in and around the area of Representative District 23 vote sufficiently as a bloc to enable them to usually defeat Latino voters' candidates of choice.

122. Representative District 23 created by the Redistricting Plan fails to contain Latino VAP sufficient to provide Latinos with a fair opportunity to elect representatives of their choice.

123. Representative Districts 1, 2, 21, 22, 23 and 24 can be drawn to include Latino VAP sufficient to provide Latino voters a fair opportunity to elect representatives of their choice without violating constitutional requirements.

124. The Redistricting Plan's failure to provide Latino voters a fair opportunity to elect representatives of their choice in Representative District 23 violates Section 2 of the federal Voting Rights Act of 1965, 42 U.S.C. § 1973.

125. The following Representative Districts, inter alia, fail to meet the constitutional mandate within the Illinois Constitution of 1970 that all districts be "compact": 1, 5, 6, 8, 10, 12, 15, 18, 20, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 57, 59, 64, 72, 113, and 114.

126. No sufficient or neutral justification exists for the bizarre shape of the Representative Districts listed in paragraph 125 other than the partisan advantage of Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Illinois General Assembly.

127. Representative District 96 in the Redistricting Plan has a shape so bizarre on its face that the shape can only rationally be understood to be an effort to separate voters into different districts on the basis of race.

128. No sufficient or neutral justification exists for the bizarre shape of Representative District 96.

129. The Redistricting Plan pits 25 incumbent Republican members of the General Assembly against one another while pitting only eight incumbent Democrat members of the General Assembly against one another, without any neutral justification for this partisan discrepancy.

130. The Redistricting Plan's pitting significantly more incumbent Republicans against one another than incumbent Democrats is a deliberate attempt to enhance Democrats' prospects for reelection and targets Republicans to prevent their reelection.

131. The bizarre shapes of several districts listed in paragraph 125 and the Redistricting Plan's overall lack of compactness is in furtherance of a deliberate attempt to enhance Democrats' prospects for reelection and target Republicans to prevent their reelection.

132. Additionally, many of these bizarrely-shaped districts are clearly intended to slither across traditional lines in order to place multiple incumbent Republicans into one district.

133. The Redistricting Plan provides Democratic incumbents with larger retention of the economic, social and political constituencies from their preceding districts within their new districts than Republican incumbents within their new districts.

134. The Fair Map is significantly and consistently more compact than the Redistricting Plan, as required by the Illinois Constitution.

135. The Democratic majority of the General Assembly ignored the Fair Map despite the fact that the Fair Map is more compact.

136. The Redistricting Plan splits 46 counties, 214 townships and 336 municipalities.

137. The Redistricting Plan's excessive splitting of counties and municipalities is in furtherance of a deliberate attempt to enhance the partisan advantage of Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Illinois General Assembly and target Republicans to prevent their reelection.

138. The Redistricting Plan systematically and intentionally dilutes the votes of Republicans in favor of Democrats in furtherance of a deliberate attempt to enhance the partisan advantage of Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Illinois General Assembly and target Republicans to prevent their reelection.

139. No compelling reason or neutral justification exists for the Redistricting Plan to unfairly burden Republican voters because of their political views.

140. The Redistricting Plan will create a substantial Democratic majority in both Houses of the Illinois General Assembly for at least the next decade.

141. The Redistricting Plan burdens Plaintiffs RADOGNO'S and CROSS'S ability to carry out their constitutionally prescribed duty of representing the interests of their caucuses and Republican voters throughout the State.

(Violation of Section 2 of the Federal Voting Rights Act of 1965)

1-141. Plaintiffs adopt, reaffirm and incorporate by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 141 of Count 1 as if once again fully set forth herein.

142. Section 2 of the federal Voting Rights Act of 1965, 42 U.S.C. § 1973, is applicable to the South Side Latino Districts.

143. Under the Redistricting Plan, Latinos in Representative District 23 have less opportunity than other members of the electorate to participate in the political process and to elect candidates of their choice, thereby diluting their votes.

144. It is possible to create a redistricting plan which will provide Latinos a more equal opportunity to elect candidates of their choice.

145. The Redistricting Plan violates Section 2 of the federal Voting Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1973.

(Equal Protection – Redistricting Plan)

1-145. Plaintiffs adopt, reaffirm and incorporate by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 145 of Count 1 as if once again fully set forth herein.

146. The Redistricting Plan as a whole is less compact than the previous redistricting plan enacted in 2001.

147. The bizarre shapes in the Redistricting Plan and the Redistricting Plan's systemic and pervasive lack of compactness are in furtherance of a deliberate attempt to enhance Democrats' prospects for reelection and target Republicans to prevent their reelection.

148. Additionally, many of these bizarrely-shaped districts are clearly intended to slither across traditional lines in order to place multiple incumbent Republicans into one district.

149. The Redistricting Plan splits 46 counties, 214 townships and 336 municipalities.

150. The Redistricting Plan splits more traditional redistricting boundaries such as municipalities and townships in Illinois than the map of Legislative and Representative Districts for the General Assembly enacted in 2001.

152. The Redistricting Plan contains more splits of counties and municipalities in Illinois than is reasonable.

153. The Redistricting Plan's excessive splitting of counties and municipalities is in furtherance of a deliberate attempt to enhance the partisan advantage of Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Illinois General Assembly and target Republicans to prevent their reelection.

155. The Redistricting Plan fragments and submerges Republican voters into districts in which Democratic candidates for the General Assembly have a partisan advantage.

158. The Redistricting Plan pits 25 incumbent Republican members of the General Assembly against one another while pitting only eight incumbent Democrat members of the General Assembly against one another, without any neutral justification for this partisan discrepancy.

159. The Redistricting Plan's pitting significantly more incumbent Republicans against one another than incumbent Democrats is a deliberate attempt to enhance Democrats' prospects for reelection and targets Republicans to prevent their reelection.

160. The Redistricting Plan systematically and intentionally dilutes the votes of Republicans in favor of Democrats in furtherance of a deliberate attempt to enhance the partisan advantage of Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Illinois General Assembly and target Republicans to prevent their reelection.

161. The Redistricting Plan constitutes an intentional, systematic and unfair political gerrymander in order to protect Democratic members of the General Assembly and to prevent reelection of a Republican majority of members of the General Assembly.

163. The Redistricting Plan will likely create an unfair substantial majority for the Democrats in both houses of the General Assembly for at least the next decade.

164. The Democratic Caucuses abused the process by which the Redistricting Plan was created by excluding the Fair Map proposed by Republican Caucuses from any consideration before the General Assembly.

165. The Democratic Caucuses abused the process by which the Redistricting Plan was created by excluding the members of the public from substantive involvement in the redistricting process.

166. The Redistricting Plan disregards all traditional redistricting principles in an effort to advance the partisan advantage of Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Illinois General Assembly.

167. Based on a totality of the circumstances, the predominant factor in creating the Redistricting Plan was the enhancement of the partisan advantage of Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Illinois General Assembly.

168. Based on the totality of the circumstances, the Redistricting Plan denies the Plaintiffs equal protection as guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

COUNT 3
(Equal Protection – Redistricting Plan - Intentional and Purposeful Discrimination)

1-168. Plaintiffs adopt, reaffirm and incorporate by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 168 of Count 2 as if once again fully set forth herein.

169. Article 2, Section 3(a) of the Illinois Constitution states that "Legislative Districts shall be compact, contiguous, and substantially equal in population."

170. It is the State's duty to enact and follow a redistricting plan that complies with Article 2, Section 3(a) of the Illinois Constitution.

171. It is the State's duty to enact follow a redistricting plan that does not intentionally or purposefully discriminate against voters because of their political beliefs or party affiliations in violation of Article 2, Section 3(a) of the Illinois Constitution.

172. Republican voters share common political beliefs and affiliations.

173. Because Republican voters share common political beliefs and affiliations, they are a protected class under the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to United States Constitution.

174. Republican voters have the constitutional right under both Article 2, Section 3(a) of the Illinois Constitution and the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution to have compact Representative Districts.

175. The Redistricting Plan violates Article 2, Section 3(a) of the Illinois Constitution because the Representative Districts in Redistricting Plan are not compact.

176. The Representative Districts were purposefully and intentionally designed to dilute the vote of Republicans in favor of Democrats in violation of Plaintiffs' political beliefs and right to affiliate.

177. No sufficient or neutral justification exists for the bizarre shape of the Representative Districts in Redistricting Plan other than the partisan advantage of Democratic voters to the detriment of Republican voters.

178. The State failed to fulfill its duty as required by the Illinois Constitution as set forth above because the Redistricting Plan passed by the Democratically-controlled House and Senate was designed to and does intentionally and purposefully discriminate against Republican voters in favor of otherwise similarly situated Democratic voters.

179. Because the Redistricting Plan intentionally and purposefully discriminates against Plaintiffs and Republican voters due to their political beliefs and desire to affiliate, the enforcement of the Redistricting Plan violates the Plaintiffs' rights granted by the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to United States Constitution.

180. The intentional and purposeful discrimination suffered by Plaintiffs and Republican voters violates the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to United States Constitution.

COUNT 4

(Equal Protection – Redistricting Plan - Invidious and Arbitrary Discrimination)

1-181. Plaintiffs adopt, reaffirm and incorporate by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 181 of Count 3 as if once again fully set forth herein.

182. Article 2, Section 3(a) of the Illinois Constitution states that "Legislative Districts shall be compact, contiguous, and substantially equal in population."

183. It is the State's duty to enact and follow a redistricting plan that complies with Article 2, Section 3(a) of the Illinois Constitution.

184. It is the State's duty to enact and follow a redistricting plan that does not invidiously or arbitrarily discriminate against voters because of their political beliefs or party affiliations in violation of Article 2, Section 3(a) of the Illinois Constitution.

185. The State failed to fulfill these duties as the Redistricting Plan passed by the Democratically-controlled House and Senate was designed to and does invidiously and arbitrarily discriminate against Republican voters in favor of otherwise similarly situated Democratic voters.

186. Because the Redistricting Plan invidiously and arbitrarily discriminates against Plaintiffs and Republican voters because of their political beliefs and desire to affiliate, the enforcement of the Redistricting Plan violates the Plaintiffs' rights granted by the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to United States Constitution.

187. The invidious and arbitrary discrimination suffered by Plaintiffs and Republican voters violates the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to United States Constitution.

COUNT 5
(Equal Protection – Representative District 96)

1-188. Plaintiffs adopt, reaffirm and incorporate by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 188 of Count 4 as if once again fully set forth herein.

189. The Redistricting Plan created Representative District 96.

190. Representative District 96 was formed to join areas within the cities of Decatur and Springfield that have high percentages of African-Americans.

191. Representative District 96 severs the core of five different representative districts that existed under the previous map.

192. Representative District 96 does not meet the constitutional requirement that all districts be "compact."

194. Representative District 96 also lowers the partisan advantage of Republican voters in adjoining districts.

195. Representative District 96 severs the boundary lines of Christian, Macon and Sangamon Counties.

196. Representative District 96 does not preserve the existing incumbent-constituent relationship.

197. Representative District 96 joins urban and rural communities with dissimilar interests.

198. The Democratic Caucuses used the ethnicity of the African-American communities in Springfield and Decatur as the predominant factor over all other constitutional and traditional redistricting principles in drawing Representative District 96.

199. The Democratic Caucuses have provided no neutral or compelling justification for joining urban and rural communities with dissimilar interests; severing counties and the core of the previous districts; not preserving incumbent-constituent relationships; not keeping Representative District 96 compact; and lowering the partisan advantage of the Republican minority in Representative District 96 and adjoining districts.

200. The drawing of Representative District 96 denies the Plaintiffs and other similarly situated voters within the State of Illinois equal protection of the laws in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.
